

The New York Times

WINE, BEER & COCKTAILS

THE POUR

Last-Minute Buys for Thanksgiving Wines

By Eric Asimov Nov. 16, 2017

Thanksgiving is just about here. Preparations are well underway, everything seems to be in order, except ... we forgot about the wine. "I'm bringing the wine? I thought you were bringing the wine!" The last minute is not the time to agonize over finding specific recommendations, esoteric selections or finely calibrated food-and-wine combinations. It is the moment to make the best of it, while minimizing the distress. Here are some quick possible solutions.

BROADSIDE

“California labels to look for that provide great value in a range of wines — from cabernet sauvignon and chardonnay to zinfandel, sauvignon blanc and beyond — include: Broadside...”

