Raise A Glass

By Robert Whitley September 13, 2019

A gift of wine this holiday season is special on its face because it's personal. I will attempt to alleviate a bit of the anxiety by suggesting 10 well-priced (under $100 retail) luxury wines that are universally respected by wine connoisseurs. The following wines are among my personal favorites -- wines I would be happy to gift and honored to receive.

DOMAINE CARNEROS BY TAITTINGER 2015 Brut Rose, Carneros ($42)

This is a serious sparkling rose from perhaps the finest sparkling wine producer in the United States. Winemaker Eileen Crane oversees production, and the wines reflect her dedication to quality and style. They are impeccable in every way, and this vintage brut rose is a gem.
