

To Like, Perchance to Love

04/18/2019 by Tim McNally

I view the result of a winemaker's efforts or a distiller's skills to be works of art, every bit as meaningful and moving as a fine painting or a breath-taking sculpture. For me, as impressive and memorable as the Sistine Chapel ceiling is, there are other outcomes from the hands of talented people that measure up in different ways.

A few of my truly Golden Tasting Moments:

Arriving in the Carneros Region of Sonoma and Napa Counties, and heading straight to the impressive winemaking and guest welcoming center Domaine Carneros Chateau. Take a seat at a table by the fire (always chilly in northern California) and ordering a flight of five sparkling wines along with a selection of amazing cheeses and caviar. The views over to Napa are memorable as are these moments of peace and reflection about how lucky we all are.