

San Jose Mercury News

LIFESTYLES

The Iberian wines of ... Lodi?

By Laurie Daniel | For the Mercury News

POSTED: 05/18/2015 12:00:00 PM PDT | UPDATED: 18 DAYS AGO

“Albarino, tempranillo, graciano and verdelho are grapes most often associated with Spanish and Portuguese wines. In California, these varieties have found a comfortable niche in Lodi. It makes sense. Lodi has a climate that’s similar to much of southern Europe, with warm days, cool nights and a dry summer.”

CHARLES COMMUNICATIONS
ASSOCIATES, LLC

THE WINES OF LODI, CA