

INSIDER

LIFE

BUSINESS

NEWS

TV

ALL

Stunning photos show the new UNESCO World Heritage sites around the world

Sinéad Baker Jul 12, 2019, 3:58 AM

Le Colline del Prosecco di Conegliano e Valdobbiadene, Italy

Consorzio Tutela del Vino Conegliano Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore Docg/UNESCO

This region in north-east Italy "includes part of the vine-growing landscape of the Prosecco wine production area.

Use of the area by humans since the 17th century has created a unique landscape that has a checkerboards shape"consisting of rows of vines parallel and vertical to the slopes."