

KQED

Inform. Inspire. Involve.

Check, Please! Bay Area reviews:

Il Casaro Pizzeria & Mozzarella Bar, Soba Ichi

Season 15 episode 19 | Thursday, August 6

Consorzio di Tutela

PROSECCO SUPERIORE
DAL 1876

Conte Collalto Brut 'San Salvatore' Millesimato Conegliano Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore DOCG

Italy, $11

What a fantastic deal! If you are a Prosecco fan (and let's face it...who isn't?) this is a sparkler you'll want to purchase by the case. Light, refreshing and crafted in a dry style, it hails from the steep, hilly region of northeastern Italy called Conegliano Valdobbiadene. Anchored by two towns of the same names, it's an historic wine area blanketed with vineyards planted primarily to Glera grape vines. This version from Collalto is named for an historic castle – San Salvatore -- located on the highest part of the vineyard. When you see the words “Prosecco Superiore” is signifies quality and affordability rolled into one bottle. - Leslie Sbrocco, host of Check, Please! Bay Area

CHARLES COMMUNICATIONS
ASSOCIATES, LLC