More and more Napa Valley tasting rooms are upping the ante and serving their wines the way they were meant to be sipped: with food. These 20 wineries are foregoing the obligatory cheese and charcuterie board for fun, creative, and satisfying experiences, prepared by some seriously talented chefs — many of whom come from the Michelin-starred fine dining scene.

The Bubbles & Bites experience ($90) at Napa's grand chateau, Domaine Carneros, is meant to transport you to Mexico, matching bites like Dungeness crab esquites and lamb in mole negro with four sparkling wines. But if you'd rather head overseas to France, the Ultimate Chips & Dip offering ($350 for two) includes three types of caviar with accouterments and three pours of Domaine Carneros' best bubbly.
