

Sunset

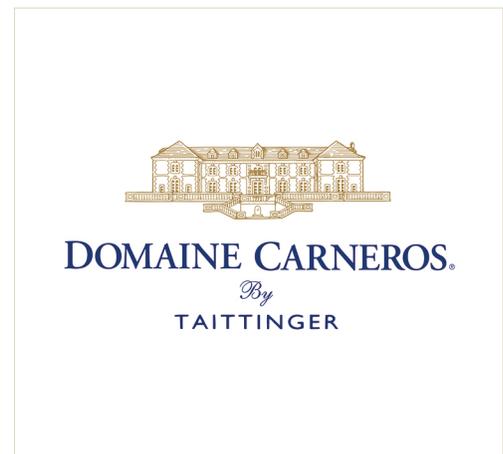

SUNSET • TRAVEL • WINE COUNTRY

California Wineries Are Pulling out All the Stops with Unique Tasting Experiences

Shuffleboard, falcons, sabres, oh my! We've got our eye on these unique wine tasting experiences in California.

KRISTIN SCHARKEY – July 28, 2021

Learn to Saber

At Domaine Carneros, you can make an appointment to learn sabrage, aka the art of lopping off the top of a wine bottle with a saber.

At Napa's Domaine Carneros, you can make an appointment to learn the "history, legend and technique" of sabrage, aka the art of lopping off the top of a wine bottle with a saber. It includes a demonstration and a flight of four estate sparkling wines paired with cheese, meats, and caviar from local artisans. You must be over the age of 21 to attend. $150 per person, $120 for members.