By Aaron Romano ■ May 3, 2021

Searching for a last-minute gift or a bottle for Mother's Day brunch? Look no further. The wines in this week's selection offer a panoply of choices, from rich Chardonnay and festive bubbly to suave Pinot Noir and zesty Zinfandel. Plus, there are a few values sprinkled in. No matter which wines the mothers in your life enjoy, you can't go wrong with these bottlings, as they've all earned 90 points or more on Wine Spectator's 100-point scale.

For something a bit more traditional, Domaine Carneros offers its Brut Rosé Carneros with expressive rose petal, raspberry, orange zest and spice notes.

DOMAINE CARNEROS Brut Rosé Carneros 2017

90 points $45

WS Review: Expressive rose petal and raspberry aromas lead to plush orange zest, apple and spice flavors. Finishes on a snappy note. Drink now. 4,500 cases made. — Tim Fish
