Portlandia 2018 Momtazi Vineyard Pinot Noir (McMinnville)

These biodynamic grapes add texture and subtle aromatics, driving up the complexity and incorporating a pleasing mix of floral, fruit and herbal components. It's a full bodied wine, with marionberry and blackberry fruit and highlights of nutmeg spice and cut tobacco. —PAUL GREGUTT

Portlandia 2019 Pinot Gris (Willamette Valley)

This wine is bursting with scents and flavors of pear and grapefruit. Incredibly refreshing, it's textured and leesy, with appealing minerality and a long, clean, pour-me-more finish. —PAUL GREGUTT

Portlandia 2018 Pinot Noir (Willamette Valley)

This Pinot Noir includes 30% Hyland Vineyard fruit. Brisk black-cherry scents and flavors come with a roasted, grilled quality. Those charred notes carry over into the finish, which is surprisingly substantial for a wine at this price. —PAUL GREGUTT
