

Jun. 26, 2017

Must-try summer wines: Rosé, bottled sangria, sparklers and more

Leslie Sbrocco

Wine expert Leslie Sbrocco shares her picks for the best summer wines, including rosés, light and crisp wines that are perfect for the beach, wines that are perfect for cookouts and some all American wines for the Fourth of July.

Global Grilling with Latin Flair

RITUAL

2015 Ritual Sauvignon Blanc, Casablanca Valley, Chile $15

A classic pairing with fiery fare is Sauvignon Blanc. This citrus-scented version is made from grapes grown in cool-climate vineyards on Chile's Pacific Coast. Made by the talented hands of Rodrigo Soto — one of the country's acclaimed winemakers — the Ritual is a winner for not only warm-weather sipping, but year 'round imbibing.